DEFENDANTS

AGREED ORDER

Defendants Cannon, Artzer, Ditsch, and HacsKaylo (“Defendants”), through their undersigned counsel of record, move this Court for an extension of the due date for filing their respective responsive pleadings, including any Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 motions and defenses (none of which is deemed waived, and all of which are expressly preserved by this request for relief, other than objections related to service of process), until fifteen (15) day after entry of orders granting or denying the pending motions to transfer venue (Doc. 8) and remand (Doc. 11). Plaintiff has no objection to that motion and the Court is of the opinion that it should be granted.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the motion [28] is granted, and the due date for Defendants Fred Cannon, Christopher Artzer, Andre Ditsch, and John HacsKaylo to file their responsive pleadings, including any Fed.R.Civ.P. 12 motions and defenses (none of which is deemed waived by that request for relief, other than objections related to service of process), is fifteen (15) days after entry of orders granting or denying the pending motions to transfer venue and remand.

SO ORDERED, this the 19th day of May, 2015.
